ROOFING CLADDING & INSULATION

WELCOME TO THE UK'S MOST POPULAR
AND INFORMATIVE ROOFING, CLADDING
& INSULATION MAGAZINE

RCI magazine launched in 1980 and for over 40 years has served the roofing, cladding and insulation sector, delivering the information and insight its readers need.

However, a brand like RCI does not retain its leading position by staying still. It does it by listening to its readers, understanding its markets and shaping its content accordingly. With this in mind, RCI surveyed its readers to ensure that it is delivering what the industry needs. The results were conclusive and can be found in this media pack, but some of the highlights are:

- 100% of RCI readers say the magazine is relevant to their job
- 84% hold on to their copy
- 87% have made a purchasing decision based on what they have read or seen in RCI

This level of engagement is achieved by editorial excellence, coupled with relentless research to ensure our output is reaching the right people - a fact backed up by the magazine's ABC audit. These numbers are heartening, of course, but RCI is not resting on its laurels. This evolution is reflected in the magazine's various reader initiatives, to include our successful Façade and Pitched Roofing Awards, and of course the RCI Show which celebrates its 9th year at the stadium MK.

This makes RCI the ideal platform for all your marketing requirements.

NOTE: If using animated GIF's please remember to ensure the first frame of the animation contains all the main information that is wanting to be shown. Animated GIF's no longer play in versions of Outlook (2007 upwards), and only display the first frame of the animation, which is why it is important to ensure that the first frame contains all the relevant information. A common trick is to move what would be the last frame (which would usually contain the information) to the position of the first frame.
